Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Local Space Astrology by Michael Erlewine

If you were to walk outside your home at the moment of birth and look around you, the Sun, Moon, and planets would each be somewhere in the sky above and around you. For example, the Moon might be rising low to the Southwest, and so forth. If you were to draw a line from your birth spot in the compass direction of the Moon, it would extend across (and around) the Earth, passing through any number of cities. The circular line of those cities and places mark a path across the earth toward the direction of the Moon. If you did this for the Sun and all the planets, you would be examining a map of the space surrounding your locale. That map would be a standard geographical map with the direction of each planet laid out on it as lines. This is why I originally called this technique Local Space Astrology.

At any given moment, the Sun, Moon, and all the planets are above a certain spot on earth and in a particular direction from your birthplace. In fact, not only planets and stars, but also cities, countries, and even the local water tower or the neighbor's house has a place and direction on this map. It does not matter how far away an object is, we only want to know in what direction it is. You can walk toward, write letters to, or get up and relocate into, for instance, the direction of Venus or Mars, and we each do this all the time.

Local Space maps are useful when it comes to relocation and/or when we want to pick a city (and direction) of a planet we would like to experience more of, like perhaps Venus (love, beauty, value) or Jupiter (might help us find our life path or career), and so forth. There are also planets we might like to experience less of, as well, so we might avoid those spots. But these lines are also great for picking spots for vacation and business trips, as well as checking out where friends and not-so-friends live. It could be someone all the way in China or as close as a neighbor's house.

Understanding Local Space allows you to fine tune your life by picking the places you live or want to visit in terms of what they can add or take away from your overall life experience. For example, if you are struggling to find the right career, you might want to take a trip or have a vacation in the direction of the planet Jupiter (the planet of vocation) and see what develops. Or, as I myself did, you may want to permanently relocate to a Jupiter spot until you can find your way to making a living. Or, if you find yourself living in a city along your Saturn line and you feel too hemmed in and inhibited, you might want to just move to a city in line with a planet that is more encouraging. You get the idea.

Check out your Local Space Chart and look at each line to see in what direction it is and what cities or places it passes through. Read about and consider what each planet offers you in the way of qualities and changes. Don't forget about the places where your friends and not-so-friends live, whether they are far away cities or just across town. Give it some thought. Local Space can be very useful in fine-tuning your life experience through astrology.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Aries

You're going to look a lot more aggressive and take-charge here, and if you choose to make the first move, chances are you can do it. In fact, it may be expected of you, so get used to the image. Just remember that first in is first attacked, and there should be extremely aware when you're the point person.

Midheaven in Capricorn

It will be natural for people here to expect you to deliver as promised, and they will assume to be responsible. That's great when you know the turf, but not always when you're on new ground. So, when in doubt, don't rush in where you may not be able to stay in, and you won't suffer from the delay.

Natal Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Moon/Jupiter On DS (Strong)

You'll likely find a lot of sincere and generous feelings coming your way here, and all you have to do is say yes to let them in. Positive emotions are in play, and you will tend to be the one to pull them out and encourage their development. Your OK may be all that's needed to make it yes all around.

Natal Mars/Jupiter On DS (Strong)

The expanding schemes of others, powered by a seemingly inexhaustible supply of energy to pursue them, may overwhelm you here. Thus, it's a great place for picking up new business partners who will carry the load, if you can keep them under control. Personally, you might get worn out by who you meet, but you'll have a good time.

Natal Venus/Neptune On MC (Strong)

Your taste for the spiritual, and perhaps for spirits as well, is on the top of the table here, but you may have to search a bit for what you imagined you'd find. You'll be known for your sympathetic side, and your penchant for romance as well. You may not actually find your fantasy, but you may become someone else's.

Natal Saturn On DS (Strong)

When things get out of control where you are, this may be just the place to go to restore order in your life. But if things are already slow or restrictive, they'll probably get more so here. You may appear as quite the conservative to the local populous, however you may be regarded at home and may become an instrument of stability in the very process of steadying yourself, simply by getting back in touch with your basics and cutting the nonsense. Don't expect to live high on the hog here, as you may not find accustomed frills available to you, but the chances are that what you need will be available if you conserve your resources. You'll be at your best when dealing with older locals and helping them preserve their posterity and cultural traditions. Observe formalities and you'll find acceptance, criticize customs and you'll be cut off at the plate. Not the usual picture of paradise, this place holds the potential for a refreshing retreat, a reinstallation of inner order, and a place that won't change much for you over the years. Go there with great expectations and you may be disappointed. Return there to recover your inner foundations, and you may find home.

Saturn in Sixth House

You may find your work schedule cut back here, though not necessarily your productivity. Time-wasting routines can be disposed of and needless repetition eliminated. The same goes for your diet. Back to basic and simple local fare may be just what your system needs to purify itself, get rid of excess.

Natal Sun Sqr AS (Strong)

There may be some conflict between the way you really are inside and the first impression people get upon meeting you here. First meetings don't tell the tale, so you'll have to follow-up until they've got it straight whom they're really talking to. Don't expect the first date to get the results you ultimately want, so have the second already lined up.

Sun in Tenth House

You're likely to get good press just by showing up here, and certainly you're favored for any career moves you want to make. Because you're pretty much on display, you may find you have to perform a lot and you can't turn down an encore. Please the audience, then please yourself -- though both should come at once.

Natal Venus Sqr AS (Strong)

Getting what you want around here may take more than one try, and that's not because no one wants to please. It's just that it's sometimes unclear to others what you want or what image you are trying to project to get it. A mirror is your best friend, and let your friends be your mirror until you get it right.

Venus in Tenth House

You can make yourself well-known and liked here, and in more and different ways than you may be immediately aware of. So, consider your life an open book and play as if there's nothing off the record (because there may not be). You make a good presentation, then let things take care of themselves, without undue promotion.

Natal Neptune Tri AS (Medium)

You have imagination -- your own and others' -- going for you here, and playing parts may come quite naturally to you, without having to give up your own true identity. A sense of what people would like to see you as comes naturally, and so does your natural ability to actually fit the idealized mold.

Neptune in Ninth House

You may find the spiritual or religious aspects of this location to be particularly entrancing, if you are inclined to investigate them. You may also find people's philosophy to be a bit puzzling, indeed mystifying, and wonder where they got their world-view from. You may get an inkling, but you'll never really know for sure.

Natal Jupiter/Saturn On DS (Medium)

You'll find people here rather savvy in business moves and you can pick up some useful partners that will help you cash in on what's available here. Just remember that it's their territory, and when you encourage them to wheel and deal, you can get dealt out unless you have just as much to offer in reserve.

Natal Mars/Saturn On DS (Medium)

People may seem forceful yet demanding at the same time. They'll be in it for the long haul, so you should be prepared to play the same game. Spontaneity of action may be at a premium, and intention and follow-through are everything. If you're not as serious as those you meet up with, humor them or they'll want none of you.

Natal Moon/Saturn On DS (Medium)

This place may too often seem to house the complaint department, if anyone's bothering to go that far. The emotional landscape may seem impoverished at first, but you may find that it's simple reticence in the presence of someone new and you'll have to draw people out at length to get a response. Keep trying.

Natal Mars Sqr MC (Medium)

It might be a good thing to put your finger in the wind before you make any rash moves here, as there is the possibility of your maneuvers being misread and working against you in the marketplace. Attempts at self-promotion can be either overdone or under-supported, requiring reworking until you're burning at maximum efficiency.

Mars in Sixth House

You can throw yourself into the daily routine here, increasing efficiency, productivity, and even improving your health while doing it. It may seem less than fun to others, but your enthusiasm spills over and pulls them into the game. When you push yourself, it's a new production every day, never quite the same.

Natal Uranus Ssq MC (Medium)

Who knows what they think about you around here? Chances are, you don't -- and you may be surprised when you find out. For sure, you will have to do some fine-tuning of your reputation to separate truth from fancy -- and in the process you may become rather more inventive in reinventing others' inventions about you.

Uranus in Eighth House

You won't find the local treasure in a guidebook, but in some unexpected place, gleaming like a diamond in the rough. There's buried treasure here when and where you least expect it, and where you do expect it, a blank. Unasked-for support comes out of the blue, so do what you have to until it arrives unannounced.

Natal Mercury Local Space Line (Medium)

A location that furthers connections and communications of all kinds, whether by phone, e-mail, letter -- anything spoken and written. In addition, places along this line are perfect for furthering the mind, things to do with study, academics, and schooling -- whatever relates to the mind and how to use it.

If you like to communicate or need to be able to better communicate and, generally, use the mind more fully, whether as a student or a teacher, locations along this line will enhance this.

Mercury in Eleventh House

Talking turkey with close friends comes easy here, and intimate conversations lead to all kinds of new possibilities. Whether it's about just the two of you or about constructing that next step up the ladder, what you say will tend to corral closeness in any person you choose. Just keep it private, be selective.

Natal Venus Local Space Line (Medium)

Your Venus line offers a lot more than just having something to do with love and loving. In fact, Venus has to do not only with loving, but also with valuing anything, people and things, as well as appraising, and possessions, in general. Any city or place along this line, and it runs in a great circle around the earth, will bring the qualities of Venus into focus. Venus rules everything to do with cherishing, valuing, and measuring things and people. Sometimes it is love, as we know it, but as mentioned above, it is valuation of any kind -- estimating the value and quality of something. In this sense, it covers possessions and possessing of all kinds.

If you don't appreciate enough, whether that be people or things, locations in this direction should find you at least counting and measuring, and perhaps even cherishing and loving. It could also bring out a somewhat greedy side, if you are already leaning in that direction.

Natal Uranus Sqg AS (Medium)

It may be hard to be tactful here, partly because you don't know the ropes and partly because you get impatient with the situation. Under any circumstances, things can be a bit more abrupt than comfortable, though the results may be enlightening, so tune up your shock absorbers if you are going to spend any time here.

Natal Mars On DS (Medium)

You'll be highly energized here, and there is something about the circumstances that just sets you on fire if you let it. It's a great place for making great strides, and you can push your limits here to the point of exhaustion. If you plan to stay, learn to bank your fires a bit or you'll run out of gas before you've finished your task. Intensity and the ambition of the heightened moment propel you to levels of passion that can bring both thrill and risk. You can go overboard with enthusiasm and forcefulness with great effect, just make sure you don't fall overboard in the process. Igniting a hot burn is very much in the cards here, but so is burnout if you don't learn to conserve what fuels your fire. There is a fine line between being a hot action hero and simply being a hothead, so keep your head in the midst of the conflagrations you engender and you'll be a firestarter in the best sense and not a pyromaniac. This environment makes demands that are right down your alley, but if you want to turn it into your long and winding life's road, learn to ease up on the accelerator.

Natal Neptune Sqg AS (Medium)

Mistaken identity can be a recurring problem here -- whether it's someone else mistaking you for another or you finding it difficult to see yourself as others see you. In the process, you may have to do a little song and dance to clarify things. The opportunity to deceive is great, but the long-term chances of getting away with it aren't.

Natal Mercury/Neptune On MC (Medium)

It may be hard to put your finger on exactly what you think of this place, or what its inhabitants think of you. You may be seeing (or, rather, thinking) through rose-colored glasses, so it would be wise not to lay down the issues too tightly, as they will tend to slip away. General issues, based on the future, are the way to go here.

Natal Moon/Pluto On DS (Medium)

If you find that folks here try to bulldoze you the first chance they get, get used to it. It may be partially that you appear to be a challenge that requires a strong response (like "Back Off!"), so sidestep stubborn issues until you find common ground. You can arouse powerful emotions in others, so you have to understand them and channel them your way.

Natal Moon/Mars On DS (Medium)

You may find you attract people here with strong emotions passionately expressed. That can lead to love or strife, depending on how you field it, and a sympathetic ear will ward off the possibility of crossed swords. Skillfully harnessed, powerful resources are at your command to do your work for you.

Natal Mars/Pluto On DS (Mild)

You should probably watch out for extreme actions and force plays here, manifesting self-interest at any cost. When you find people intransigent, get out of their way before they have their way at your expense. It's a somewhat brutal climate, and you'll do well not to encourage it by your own actions or resistance.

Natal Moon On DS (Mild)

You're more likely to wear your heart on your sleeve here, and when you're asked for an opinion, you'll spill out just how you feel until someone stops you. It's a great place to be if you're selling things, as you'll have a never-ending supply of reasons to buy, because what you'll really be selling is yourself. Sincerity comes easy here, but so does gullibility -- when your emotions are most fully in swing, they may outweigh your more considered forms of judgment. Premature conclusions based on instant reads can get you into situations where extraction may not come easy. The bottom line is that both the scenery and the people touch you in especially personal ways, hitting a chord that makes you resonate with whatever is going on, whatever that might be. Your inclination and ability to "go native" will be strong because you feel for the environmental and social rhythms here. Your challenge will be to maintain your inner personality and identity while swaying with the winds of change in the local surroundings. Although this may feel like home, remember in the beginning at least, it's home for those who already live there more than you, so learn their habits well before you start dressing in them. What you feel, in the end, comes from your heart, not what's going on around you.

Moon in Sixth House

You have a lot to learn, do, and maybe even teach here if you have the time and energy to do so. It could be a great place to discover new ways of achieving everyday goals that will invigorate instead of tire, inspiring efficiency and conserving energy. When you get in tune with new habits, they take you along for the ride.

Natal Sun/Neptune On MC (Mild)

If you're trying to make a stand here, do it on ideals, beliefs, and hopes for the future, not on mundane matters. Your personality profile is pleasantly fogged here, more promising for play than for practicality. What you find here you transfer through a filter of your own devising lit by the sunshine of local candlelight.

Natal Sun Local Space Line (Mild)

The Sun represents not only who you are right now, but also who you can be, given the opportunity to progress. The direction of the sun points to locations where success (career and potential) can be fulfilled, the point where the future unfolds. In these locations, outward development is furthered, and latent ideas and potential have a chance to emerge, develop and grow, and reach their full potential. The Sun has to do with the future, in that it is what, given the right opportunity, you can become or turn into.

The Sun is a place where your inner potential has a good chance to manifest, where, given the right encouragement, you can become all that you can be. This might be a great place if you suffer from too many feelings, too much darkness, and not enough light, for the Sun brings light and heat -- burning brightly.

Natal Moon/Uranus On DS (Mild)

Emotional powder kegs are where you least expect them, and you just can't tell what's going to set people off. You may have some study to do here -- which will offer serious insight -- in order to really understand the peculiar heart set happening here. When you do, it will be like an empowering bolt from the blue.

Natal Jupiter On DS (Mild)

If you want a new beginning and to keep on making new beginnings, this is the place to start. There is an air of ambition that will infuse you and set you to all kinds of approaches you hadn't tried and directions you hadn't explored. Seeds planted here germinate overnight and flower well ahead of time for an early harvest. It's all about growth -- the kind provided by the resources here and the kind you bring to the mix to make it all fatten up and blossom. But the success is in the mix, not in simply clear-cutting the landscape. If you seem to move too fast for the locals, you're going to have your ambitions turned against you, so you have to be inclusive in how you handle yourself. Especially on first arrival, remember that you must provide help before you can lead, establish a track record before you can be believable. It's all about growth, and good husbandry requires good nourishment as well as good seed. Abundance is here for the asking but will only be sustained when it's yours to give as well. Positive thoughts will be the first to mind, but realistic ambitions and follow-through will make the dream come true here.

Jupiter in Seventh House

Come here clueless, leave with a plan. You'll find plenty of people, possibly even just the right ones, offering just what it takes to fill up your plate. To benefit, arrive hungry and be willing to try anything -- you didn't come here for more of the same old fare. When taste of adventure is offered, give it a try.

Natal Mars/Uranus On DS (Mild)

Don't expect consistent action on the part of folks you meet here, as they will tend to shoot from the hip and ask questions later. You'll need to be quick and attentive to catch their ever-changing repertoire of pitches, but that may be half the excitement. In fact, it may be you who incites them to it, so be careful what signals you give.

Natal Mercury Sxt AS (Mild)

Words come more easily to you here, and you won't have to rephrase to get your message across. Just say what's on your mind and it will be perfectly clear to anyone who's listening. You don't have to shout, either -- a few appropriate comments take care of everything and grease your path accordingly.

Natal Neptune Local Space Line (Mild)

The Neptune line is all about inspiration, whatever it is that inspires us, and the pure flight of the imagination. Neptune places are ones where we can let go of differences, and where the sense of unity is greater than that which divides us.

A trip to a Neptune place can be filled with inspiration, whether of a spiritual nature or simply taking in some incredible music, theater, film, or poetry. These are places where you can just let your hair down and join in with those around you -- a deep sense of belonging and unity.

Natal Saturn Sqr MC (Mild)

Watch what people are saying about you around here, as it may not be as complimentary as you deserve and it may also not be true. A little time fine-tuning your spin cycle and getting doubters on board won't be wasted and may have to be repeated before you have them counting on you the way they should.

Paran Latitude Lines

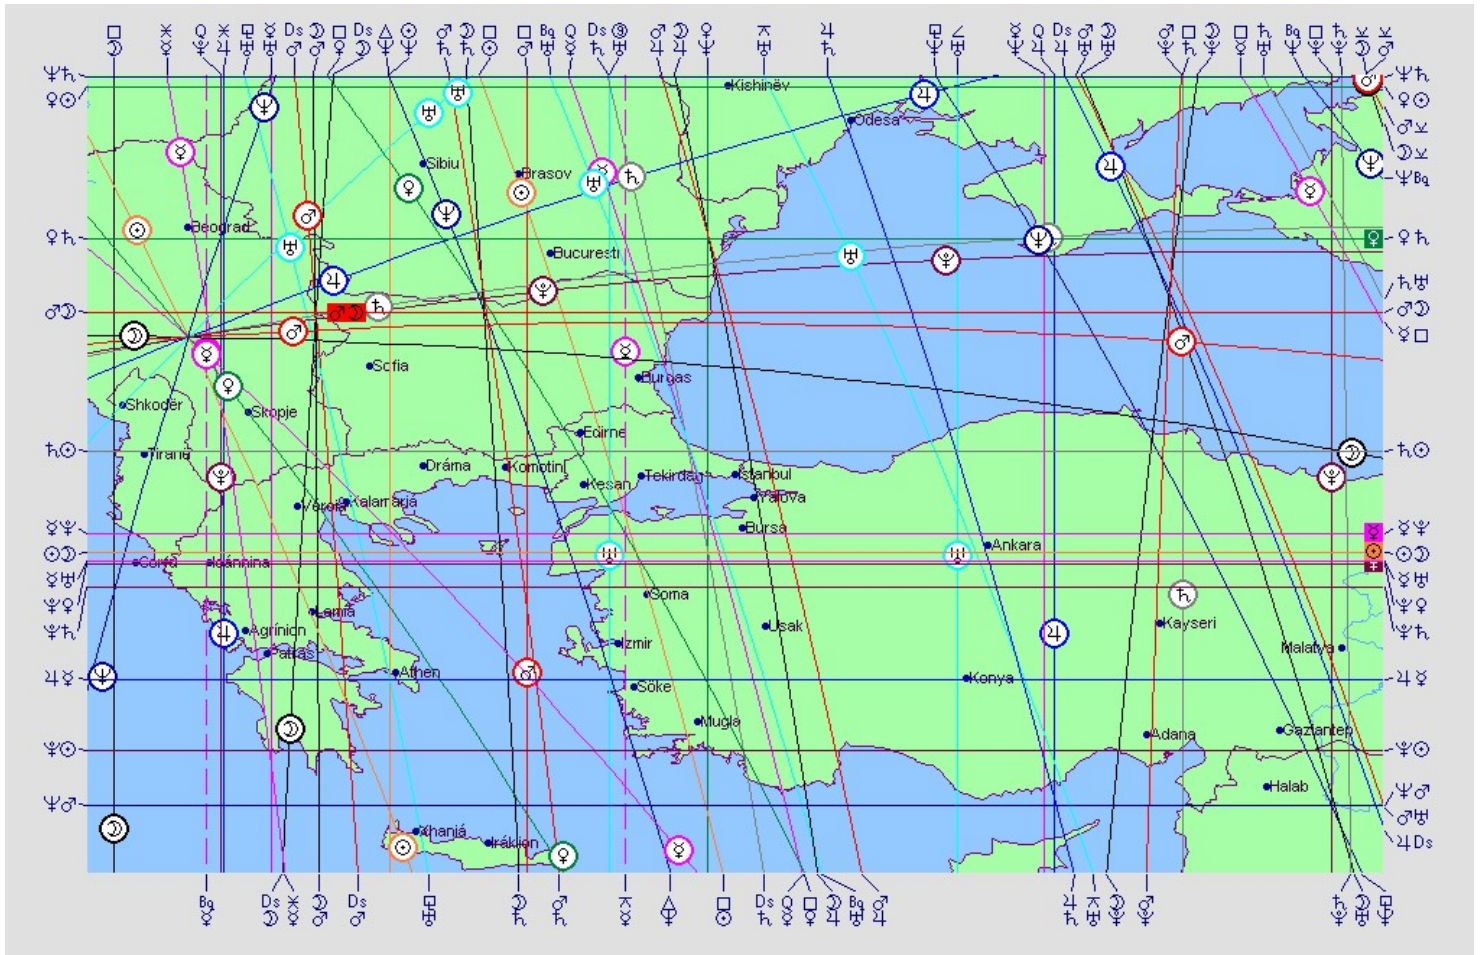

Mercury-Pluto Latitude Line at 40N06'51"

There is a fine line between determination and sheer stubbornness, and you'll find yourself on both sides of it here. Insisting on your version of the solution can gain you victory where no one else has the faith and staying power -- or you can find yourself clinging to a sinking boat that drags you down faster the harder you row. Either way, you'll find that this environment encourages this sort of approach in you simply by the way it challenges you. Is there an easier, middle way? Lots of others seem to find it here, but then they're not you. If you're looking for intellectual compromise, go elsewhere.

Sun-Saturn Latitude Line at 41N22'09"

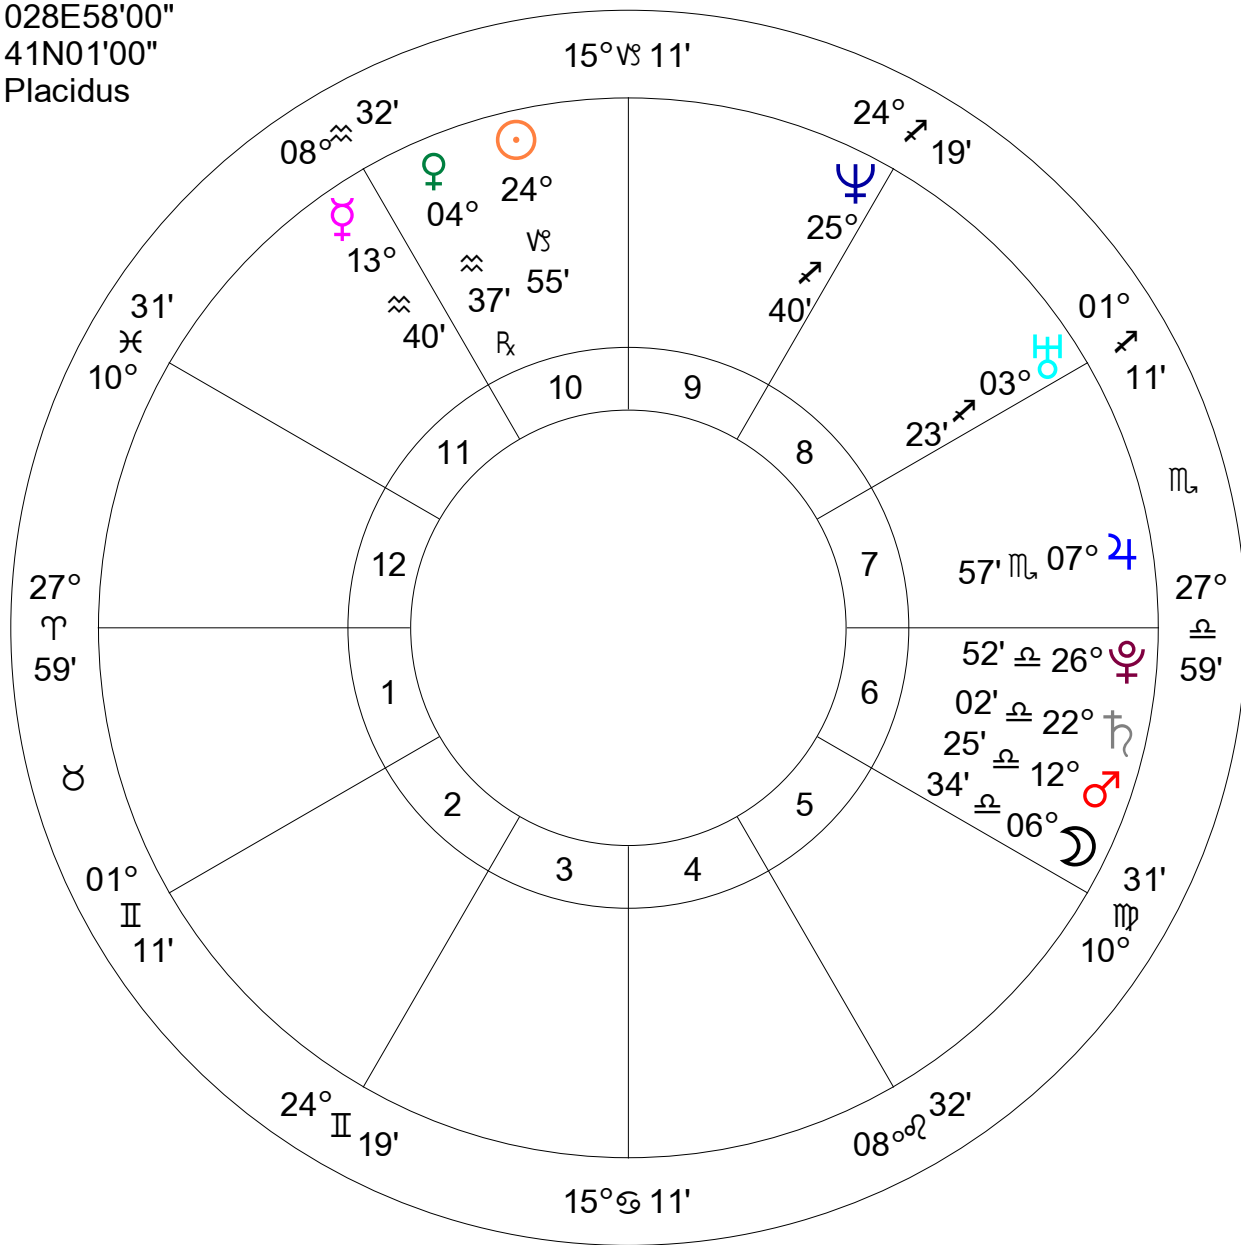

You will find it easy to play the heavy here, and just being here will tend to slow you down and get your feet on the ground. That's good if you need it and have the time to take your time, but if you're looking for action or a quick return, this may not be the place. You'll have to be slow and steady to win the race here, and the place will induce you to be and do just that. Four singles is as good as a home run, so concentrate on getting from base to base, not hitting it out of the park. In the process, your lifetime record will grow like the rings of a tree -- from a sapling into a mighty oak, as season follows season.

C*C*G Section

Transits to Angles

Location charts respond to transits very much like your natal chart. Although Jupiter, for instance, may not be transiting your natal Ascendant right now, it is transiting your relocated Ascendant somewhere, and that somewhere is likely where you'll easily get a lot of extra attention and enhanced personal prospects if you go there or start doing business with people there. The same goes for the rest of the planets, so you can travel to seek or to escape their transits at the place of your choice.

Progressions to Angles

Although you can't escape your natal progressions, you can go experience them someplace else, particularly where a favorable progressed planet relocates right on an angle and thus gets extra emphasis. As with transits, your progressed relocation paths will tell you where it's happening according to the nature of each planet. Being that they are progressions rather than transits, the effect will be more internal than external, but noticeable all the same.

C*C*G Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Progressed Sun Sxt AS (Strong)

Stepping forward with confidence here comes easily for at least a year or so, as your self-image and your actual appearance link up nicely and you don't need extra makeup to look like you're in tune with yourself. You can concentrate on making accomplishments, as the inner wherewithal needs no attention.

Transit Jupiter On IC (Strong)

Wherever you've found yourself here, it's time to expand the space you take up and put an extension on your dwelling. Get a bigger house, move to a larger room, lavish your surroundings with a generous hand. It's not just that others judge you by your house holdings, it is also how you take the measure of your own foundations.

Progressed Mercury Sqr AS (Strong)

You may catch yourself giving mixed messages this year, especially as it relates to your body language and gestures, so check your mirror and your video cam before you give a speech to the locals. It's not that you don't know what you mean to say, it's just that the point gets lost in the way you're laying it out, so work on your script and direction to iron out the kinks.

Progressed Mars On DS (Strong)

The everyday personality you would find yourself displaying here is getting a high-octane boost, which makes you a lot more likely to get out there and push both physically and emotionally. It's the beginning of a long-term feeling that's been bubbling under here, so expect things to pick up for quite a while.

Progressed Moon Ssq MC (Medium)

A few months of disconnect from your public image here means you should probably get someone else to promote you for the moment, as the spirit doesn't move you to wave your own flag very effectively. It's not that you're not proud of what you do, just a little defocused as you gather your energies for the next step.

Progressed Sun Ssq IC (Medium)

You may have some difficulty identifying with your own accomplishments here this year, and your newest and most personally held inner goals may be at odds with what went before. It's simply that you have ever-growing intentions and don't mean to be held back by the past. You can do both, just make room for yourself then and now.

Transit Neptune Sxt AS (Medium)

Folks around here may be seeing you as an outlet for their ideals and a mouthpiece for their hopes and potentials -- or at least you'll be seen as one who deeply understands them. That's in the wind for some time to come, so take the time to explore how you fit into the local dream and what part you can play in it.

Transit Neptune Ssq IC (Medium)

People here may not consider your background as ideal for their situation at all, whether there is any truth to that or not. It's a passing, but extended, phase which will have you repeatedly straightening out what you have and haven't done to clarify and set things straight. You'll know it by memory soon, if you choose to stay.

Transit Neptune Ssq AS (Medium)

You may find that your image doesn't always slip easily into the current local fantasy right now, and as a result you may be seen as an outsider or an interloper. It's about how you physically present yourself, and there's little to be done except to demonstrate that you can't judge a book by its cover.

Progressed Mars Sqr MC (Medium)

It can be hard to make what you're doing here match with what went before, and your efforts may find yourself at odds with your actual goals for a couple of years unless you make some decisions about where you're really going. Make the future build evenly on the past, don't just go with what comes to hand.

Transit Pluto Tri AS (Medium)

You're in for a few years of engendering a lot of faith in yourself here, just by showing up. You look reliable, somehow, like when the chips are down you can pull everyone through, so you might as well live up to the potential and be a fount of certainty to those around you. If you say it will be OK, it will.

Transit Pluto On MC (Medium)

Hanging around this place now, should you choose to, will require you to tear up your resum ̢ and make up a whole new formal excuse for what you've been up to all these years. It's a good place for changing careers in midstream, as long as you're comfortable with flushing the old one down the river. It's about letting, not making, it happen.

Transit Uranus Ssx AS (Mild)

You can afford to push the envelope here for a year or two, because it won't really look like you're doing it. Being leading edge is just going along with the crowd you'll fall in with, so it won't seem so risky. Lots of interesting discoveries and engaging new contacts are available, so don't be shy.

Progressed Venus Tri AS (Mild)

You like what you look like here this year, and it shows. It's not so much narcissism -- just that you feel good about yourself and you don't need a mirror to check whether you appear the way you ought to. By the same token, when you emit that feeling, it bubbles up in others and you become the object of desire.

Transit Jupiter Sqr AS (Mild)

Because you may find your attentions drawn to developing affairs on the home and career front this year, you may find some difficulty focusing on yourself alone here. In part that's because it's not about you right now, and you may need to find ways to personally get out of the way and become a part of the solution and not the problem.

Transit Saturn Sxt MC (Mild)

There's a year or so of support from the more conservative parts of this environment coming your way, so if you want to maintain your reputation, don't rock the boat too much, or don't seem to be. You are cementing your base, so to speak, so smilingly accept praise from unlikely quarters, because you'll use it later.

Transit Uranus Sqr IC (Mild)

Blows and buffets to your reputation may be the norm here for a couple of years, so be prepared to defend what you've done and who you are in the face of stray assaults from unexpected quarters. You're too far out or not far out enough -- that may be the cry -- so just be true to yourself and let the chips fall accordingly.
